SUPPLEMENTARY CATALOGUE

OF A

COLLECTION OF COINS AND MEDALS,

Gathered from half a dozen worthless Collections,

NOW THE PROPERTY OF GOINTOEM STRONG, ESQ.

TO BE SOLD THIS DAY.

Smoked glass will be provided for those who wish to examine the coins.

- 1—ENGLISH PENNY; very plain. The inscription, like England's honor, is nearly obliterated.
- 2—Kossuth MEDALET, around a hole. Bust facing left, and wearing an expression a la Mose, when he said, "Why don't yer come along?"
- 3—Kendall's Dinner Check. Very good. Probably purloined by some chap who "stepped out" without paying for his fish balls.
- 4—SPANISH QUARTER, struck in pure lead. Brought three cents at a recent sale.

- 5—English Farthing, 1838. Obverse, bust of Queen Victoria, whose hair looks as if dressed with "Spalding's Prepared Glue."
- 6—One Heller, remarkably poor. Is not a coin of the realm of Jeff Davis.
- 7—Two Kohpeks, in fair condition. Obverse, a double-headed eagle, holding a ten-pin ball in one claw and a toasting-fork in the other.
- 8—Spanish Coin of Isabel II. In very good condition, except 'Bel's nose, which looks like a premium beet.
- 9—Spanish Coin of Ferdinand VII., in fair condition.—Ferd's face, as depicted on this coin, suggests the thought that he may have just escaped from a prize ring.
- 10—French Coin of Napoleon III., in very fine condition,—much better, indeed, than the character of the man whose effigy it bears.
- 11—Ferrototype Medalet of Lincoln and Hamlin. This medalet shows conclusively that though Messrs. L. & H. are of the same political faith, they are still on opposite sides.

3

- 12—Another Russian Coin. Precisely the same as No. 7, except that it is much worse.
- 13—Spanish Ninepence, 1801. Pure silver outside.
- 14—Part of a Military Button, supposed to have been in the "Concord Fight." Very "unique."
- 15—WILLARD'S SHOP CARD. Obverse, a Comb. This coin probably recently belonged to a dentist, for the comb has very fine teeth, which may prove suggestive to the purchaser.
- 16—Three-Cent Piece, not found in Roxbury. If any one is foolish enough to bid five dollars for this coin, it will be knocked off to him immediately.
